Details for Exhibitors:

No Classic Show would exist without machines to display and to help you to justify the work in preparing and transporting your vintage or classic motorcycle to the show we are offering FREE entry to the show as well as the usual commemorative embroidered show badge and show catalogue, There is also the chance to win one of the magazine subscriptions offered by the various classic motorcycle magazines. As always this is the chance to meet other motorcycle enthusiasts, both young and old, and also allow to browse the auto jumble and spare parts stands for that elusive or much needed replacement part for your restoration.

Print out the application form, fill it in and sign the disclaimer and post off to the address on the form. Just remember entries need to be submitted by the 22nd May 2010 to be included in the catalogue.

The Show will be open to the public from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. on both days of the show.
